UPR of GHANA – INTERACTIVE DIALOGUE

(5 May 2008)

INTERVENTION BY INDIA

Mr. Chairman, Madam High Commissioner, Distinguished Members of the Delegation of Ghana!

My delegation would like to thank the delegation of Ghana for their excellent documentation which provides a broad overview of the achievements and challenges facing Ghana in the promotion and protection of human rights. Ghana has built up, in particular in the past decade and a half, a solid legislative framework which is serving the country well.

2. My delegation would like to congratulate Ghana on its successful initiative aimed at increasing the enrolment of girl students in schools. We would like to have more information about this success story. We also note with interest the People's Assembly concept of 2001 which provides a platform for the common man and woman to interact with the President of the country once a year.
3. From among the numerous initiatives taken by the government in order to promote accountability of public servants my delegation would seek information about the functioning of the judicial complaints unit headed by a retired Supreme Court judge that seeks to address judicial accountability and address misconduct in the judicial service.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
