

सत्यमेव जयते

Permanent Mission of India
Geneva

Discourse on Transformative Constitutionalism: The Indian Experience on the occasion of Samvidhan Divas 2024 and Janjatiya Gaurav Divas 2024

on Tuesday 26 November 2024 at 6 - 7 pm
Hansa Mehta Hall, 21 Avenue Appia, 1292 Chambesey

Samvidhan Divas is observed by Government of India on 26 November every year, offering an opportunity to reflect on the values and ideals enshrined in the Constitution of India, which are the guiding light of the world's largest democracy. This year, the Permanent Mission of India is commemorating Samvidhan Divas, along with Janjatiya Gaurav Divas, with a discourse on Transformative Constitutionalism: The Indian Experience.

Opening Remarks

H.E. Mr. Arindam Bagchi

Ambassador & Permanent Representative of India

Overview of Indian Constitutionalism

Dr. Surya Deva

Professor, Macquarie Law School, Sydney

Historical Context of Indian Constitution

Dr. Tripurdaman Singh

Author & Research Scholar at Geneva Graduate Institute

Constitutionalism and the Rule of Law

Dr. Manuj Bhardwaj

Executive Secretary, Indian National Association of Legal Professionals

Young Custodians of India's Constitutional Ethos

Ms. Pratha Bhatt, Student, Geneva Graduate Institute

Audience Interaction

All guests are requested to be seated by 6 pm. There will be light refreshments after the event.